

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

General Summary: Merit Preparatory Academy seeks a dedicated Social Studies Teacher who can design and teach a wide range of social studies courses for grades 7–12.

Merit is an innovative charter school (grades 7–12) in Springville, UT, with approximately 500 students. Learn more about our mission and history at <https://meritprepacademy.org/>. This position provides a great working environment, small classes, and opportunities for professional growth.

Full-time position with salary based upon qualifications and experience.

Essential Functions:

- Teach social studies courses, which may include World Geography, World Civilizations, US Studies I, and social science electives in sociology and/or psychology
- Plan and implement lesson plans in multiple content areas for different grade levels
- Provide timely and meaningful feedback to students
- Perform record keeping duties (i.e., maintain files for each student assigned, including grades, attendance, tardiness, and discipline records)
- Support the school codes of conduct and policies
- Perform additional service duties as assigned by the Department Chair and Merit Director

Qualifications:

- BA in Social Studies, History, or closely related field and a social studies endorsement with a certified teaching license in Utah
- Commitment to helping students connect learning to life
- Desire to engage in creative project-based and experiential learning
- Ability to be flexible and embrace a growth mindset
- Dedication to assigned tasks and individual student needs

Contact and Application:

Please email a detailed cover letter describing your qualifications, experience, and interest in the position; a current resume; and any other desired documents to Dr. David Wiseman (Interim Director, Merit Academy) at: david.wiseman@meritacademy.org

Review of applications will begin immediately, and this posting will be closed when the position is filled.